

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)
)
vs.)	Criminal No. 04-176
)
FREDERICK H. BANKS)

ORDER

Following the sentencing hearing in the above-captioned case held on March 10, 2006, Defendant Frederick H. Banks filed with this Court some eleven motions, responses, ex parte letters, notices, and statements. One such document is entitled "Ex Parte Letter to Stand-by Counsel Concerning Required Sentencing Witnesses and Exhibits," Docket No. 397, filed on March 14, 2006.¹ Mr. Banks concludes this "ex parte letter" by "respectfully request[ing] that the foregoing witness, exhibits and status report on what happen [sic] with both Hentosh subpoenas [sic] be filed on the record from the U.S. Marshals forthwith regarding trial and sentencing." Id. at 2.

The Court addressed the issues of witness subpoenas and allegedly missing exhibits on the record at Defendant's sentencing hearing and concludes that no further action on this pleading is required.

SO ORDERED this 13th day of April 2006.
